

Agathon Classic

Service from one pro to another

Services for machine models of the Classic series

AGATHON

The Agathon service concept

The information provided here applies to the Agathon Classic series models. Newer generation machines are covered by Agathon Care 360.

Agathon Classic services are available for machines of the following series:

- 350 series
- 250 series
- 175-DIA series
- Centerless grinding machines
- Top & Bottom machines

After-sales service & application technology

After-sales service

- Inspection, maintenance, repair, overhaul
- Factory trained service engineers and service partners with extensive experience
- Service provided for the entire lifetime of your machine(s)

Application technology

Our application engineers offer decades of practical experience. Benefit from their know-how. We offer the following application-related services:

Professional knowledge

- Competent support for your grinding needs

Programming assistance

- Assistance with programming from simple to highly complex applications

Process support

- Process optimization for your applications on-site

Further services

Spare parts service

- Our competent staff assist you in the identification of spare parts
- High availability of original spare and wear parts
- Assemblies and factory-overhauled tested spare parts from stock
- Repair kits for a quick replacement
- OEM tools for safe and efficient operation
- Returnability of unused spare parts

sales@agathon.ch | www.agathon.ch